It is the publick Happineſs, that your Majeſty, in your earlieſt Years, has diſcovered the warmeſt Attention to the Laws and Conſtitution of theſe your Dominions. It muſt fill the Heart of every honeſt Man with the moſt ardent and laſting Gratitude, that your Majeſty ſeized the firſt Opportunity of declaring the Royal Sentiments of a truly Patriot King, "That you will make it the Buſineſs of your "Life to promote, in every Thing, the Glory and "Happineſs of theſe Kingdoms, to preſerve and "ſtrengthen both the Conſtitution of Church and "State."

The diſtinguiſhed Conqueſt of Belleiſle, almoſt at the Commencement of your Reign, is a happy Preſage of what may be expected and dreaded by your Enemies, from your known Attention to the Intereſt and Honour of Great Britain. While the War laſts, may Succeſs attend your Majeſty's Fleets and Armies in every Quarter of the Globe; and may it, by the Divine Bleſſing, be the Glory of your Reign to reſtore Peace to Europe on the moſt equitable and laſting Foundation, and to ſecure the Honour, Trade, Rights, and Liberties, of theſe Kingdoms.

The following Addreſs of the Governours of the College in the Province of New York in America, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the moſt Reverend Father in God the Archbiſhop of Canterbury: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Governours of the College in the Province of New York in America.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Governours of the College of the Province of New York in the City of New York in America, (called King's College) incorporated by Royal Charter, humbly beg Leave, though at this great Diſtance, to join with the reſt of our Fellow-Subjects, who more nearly ſurround your Throne, in paying our Tribute of the moſt affectionate Grief, on the Deceaſe of our late Gracious Sovereign, of glorious Memory; and of the moſt dutiful and affectionate Joy, upon your Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Throne of your Royal Anceſtors; an Event, which is attended with the higheſt Joy, and Satisfaction, to theſe remote Provinces of your Majeſty's extenſive Dominions, as well as to our indulgent Mother-Country.

It was with the greateſt Pleaſure that we obſerved, from your Majeſty's moſt excellent Proclamation immediately upon your happy Acceſſion, that it was your firm Reſolution to promote and ſupport the Intereſt of Religion and Virtue throughout your Dominions. And inaſmuch as True Religion, and a good Education, are ſo cloſely connected, we cannot doubt of your Majeſty's gracious Diſpoſition equally to patronize the Means of Education. Since therefore we have undertaken to Found a College in this Province for the Promoting of good Literature, in order the better to ſupport the Cauſe of True Religion, (as well as for many other important Purpoſes, in this uncultivated Country, where there was the greateſt Need of it) and have not long ſince been incorporated for this Purpoſe, we humbly beg Leave to recommend this our Infant Seminary to your Majeſty's moſt Gracious Patronage, in the moſt ſubmiſſive Manner, imploring your benign Notice of it, and favourable Regard to it.

That

[Price Sixpence.]

That Almighty God may ſhower down the beſt of His Bleſſings upon your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and grant you a long and glorious Reign, over a loyal and happy People, finally advance you to an eternal Crown of Glory in a better World, ſhall be our daily and earneſt Prayer.

In Teſtimony whereof, we have cauſed the Seal of this our College to be hereunto affixed, this 12th Day of May, 1761.

Naples, June 23. Sir James Gray, Miniſter Plenipotentiary from His Britannick Majeſty to the Court of the Two Sicilies, having been honoured by the King his Maſter with the moſt Honourable Order of the Bath, Mr. Secretary Pitt, in Conſequence thereof, wrote a Letter to the Marquis Tanucci, Secretary and Councillor of State, informing him, that His Britannick Majeſty was deſirous that the King of the Two Sicilies ſhould perform the Function in his Name, by creating the ſaid Sir James Gray a Knight, and inveſting him with the Riban, with the uſual Ceremonies. The King of the Two Sicilies complied with His Britannick Majeſty's Requeſt with Pleaſure; which being communicated to Sir James Gray, he forthwith made the Requeſt in Form, and begged of his Majeſty, if it were agreeable to him, to fix the Morning of the 30th of May for the Function; which being his Majeſty's Name day, was kept with great Solemnity. The King having given his Conſent, the Function was performed on the ſaid 30th of May, in the following Manner.

The King ſtood upon a Carpet, in the Great Chamber where he receives Ambaſſadors and Foreign Miniſters, having an Arm Chair behind him. On his Right Hand ſtood a Table, upon which was placed, on a Baſin, the Sword preſented to his Majeſty by His Auguſt Father, on the Day when he yielded up to him his Dominions in Italy; and in another Baſin, upon the ſame Table, were placed the Riban and Golden Medal, being the Enſigns of the Order. On his Majeſty's Right Side ſtood his High Steward, on his Left the Chief Butler; near the Table ſtood the firſt Equerry, performing the Office of Maſter of the Horſe, who was at that Time indiſpoſed. Behind his Majeſty's Chair ſtood an Officer of the Guards, in the room of the Captain, who was indiſpoſed; and on his Right Hand two Cadets of the Guards. On his Majeſty's Left Hand were his Gentlemen of the Bed-Chamber in Waiting, who made Room for him. The King, being thus prepared for the Function, ordered the High Steward to call in Sir James Gray, who waited in the next Antichamber. Which being done, he was introduced as far as the Threſhold of the Door, where he made his firſt profound Obeiſance to the King, the ſecond in the Middle of the Room, and the third when he approached his Majeſty, who returned the ſeveral Bows. The King then ſitting down, and putting on his Hat, Sir James Gray kneeled before him. Then the Firſt Equerry, performing the Office of Maſter of the Horſe, took the Sword drawn, preſented it to the King, who, graſping it, repeated the following Words; "Be a good "and honourable Knight." He afterwards touched Sir James's Left Shoulder with the Sword three Times, ſaying, "In the Name of the Father, Son, "and Holy Ghoſt," taking off his Hat reſpectfully, and putting it on immediately. He then preſented the Sword to the Knight to kiſs; who having kiſſed it, his Majeſty reſtored it to the firſt Equerry. Then the Chief Butler taking the Riban and Medal upon the Baſin, preſented it to his Majeſty, who inveſted the Knight therewith, ſtill upon his Knees, placing the Riban ſo as to hang from his Right Shoulder to his Left Side. His Majeſty having then made a Sign to embrace him, beckoned him to riſe, and then his Majeſty aroſe himſelf from his Seat, and took off his Hat. Sir James Gray thanked the King in an elegant Speech; to which his Majeſty returned a ſhort Anſwer of Congratulation.

After which the Knight retired into the Antichamber with the uſual Obeiſances, and the King returned to his own Apartment.

Warſaw, July 1. General Merci, who is appointed Ambaſſador, in the room of Count Eſterhaſi, from the Imperial Court to that of Ruſſia, is arrived here in his Way to Peterſburgh.

Magdeburg, July 11. On the 5th Inſtant the King of Pruſſia was ſtill at Kuntzendorff, and General Laudohn had then made no Movement. Nothing has yet happened in Poland: General Ziethen occupies a very ſtrong Poſt at Storckneſt, and the Ruſſian Army is encamped at Delſko very near.

General Totleben was arreſted on the 29th paſt, together with ſome other Officers, and ſent under a ſtrong Guard to Petersbourg.

Magdebourg, July 14. General Laudohn having changed his Poſition from Hauptmannſdorff to Walten Watterſdorff, his Pruſſian Majeſty decamped on the 6th with his Army from Kuntzendorff, and marched to Peltzen, where he is at Hand to watch the Motions of that General, in Caſe he ſhould attempt to penetrate further into Sileſia; but on the 10th nothing had happened.

We hear from Poland, that General Ziethen had begun to reconnoitre the Ruſſian Camp near Delſko, which he found inattackable. That on that Occaſion, there had been a very ſmart Skirmiſh, in which the Pruſſians had gained ſome Advantage. And that on the 8th, General Ziethen left the Camp of Storckneſt, in order to obſtruct the Entry of the Ruſſians into Sileſia, who are thought to have a Deſign upon Breſlau.

Prince Henry ſtill continues quiet at Schlettau, as does Marſhal Daun in his Camp near Dreſden. It is reported that he has lately ſent home ſome large Detachments into Luſatia, and to reinforce General Laudohn.

Admiralty Office, July 25.

Captain Henry Scott, of His Majeſty's Sloop the Badger, being off Holy Iſland, on the 17th Inſtant fell in with and took a French Privatier belonging to Dunkirk, called the Loup, Captain Duhamel, Commander, of Twelve Carriage and Eight Swivel Guns, and Seventy Men, with the Five Ranſomers on Board for the under-mentioned Veſſels; and has brought her into Yarmouth Roads.
